Friends,

Why do you support YFC? Why do I even work for YFC? Why do we doggedly pursue kids who could sometimes care less who we are? The answer is simple: Jesus.

Because we were given a love so great, a gift so massive, by One who owed us nothing, we seek out others to share it with. If you are reading this, I believe you have chosen to participate in sharing this gift with youth, like I have. I want you to know, our efforts are not pointless.

On Sunday, March 18th, one of our family group leaders and myself had the privilege of baptizing two girls before a room full of people. These girls heard Jesus' message and chose to alter their lives by accepting His gift of life, giving life to their stories. On March 18th we celebrated victory over death and were reminded our fight is not without success. It's ultimately for moments like these we work so hard, to see Jesus made alive in these teens.

March 18th was born out of weeks, months, and years of relationship building, guidance, sharing of the Word, and God's grace. We have already heard from other students wishing to accept life as well. What an incredible opportunity! This excites and motivates us as we continue to meet each week and get ready for camps, where so much takes place.

Though little by little, as partners in the gospel we are fulfilling the mission and purpose placed on our hearts and souls. Together we are seeing God move and we are joining Him in His movement, and the need for more hands is constant. So, continue to pray, give, serve, love, share, and celebrate with us because our fight is long and hard but also full of victory, hope, and most assuredly, LIFE.

Grace and Peace,

Zach Lewis

Executive Director Central
Oregon YFC

How Can You Pray for Us?

- For God to deliver a team of volunteers to our programs.
- For relationships to grow and develop.
- For us to encounter and draw even more students who don't know us and don't know God.
- For our family group leaders as they pursue deeper relationships with students.
- For a student who is trying to engage with us more deeply but is afraid.
